RESPECTFULLY DEDICATED

TO

MISS MARY RICHARDSON

DO NOT WEEP

WORDS & MUSIC BY

EUGENE DE BEUST.

3½

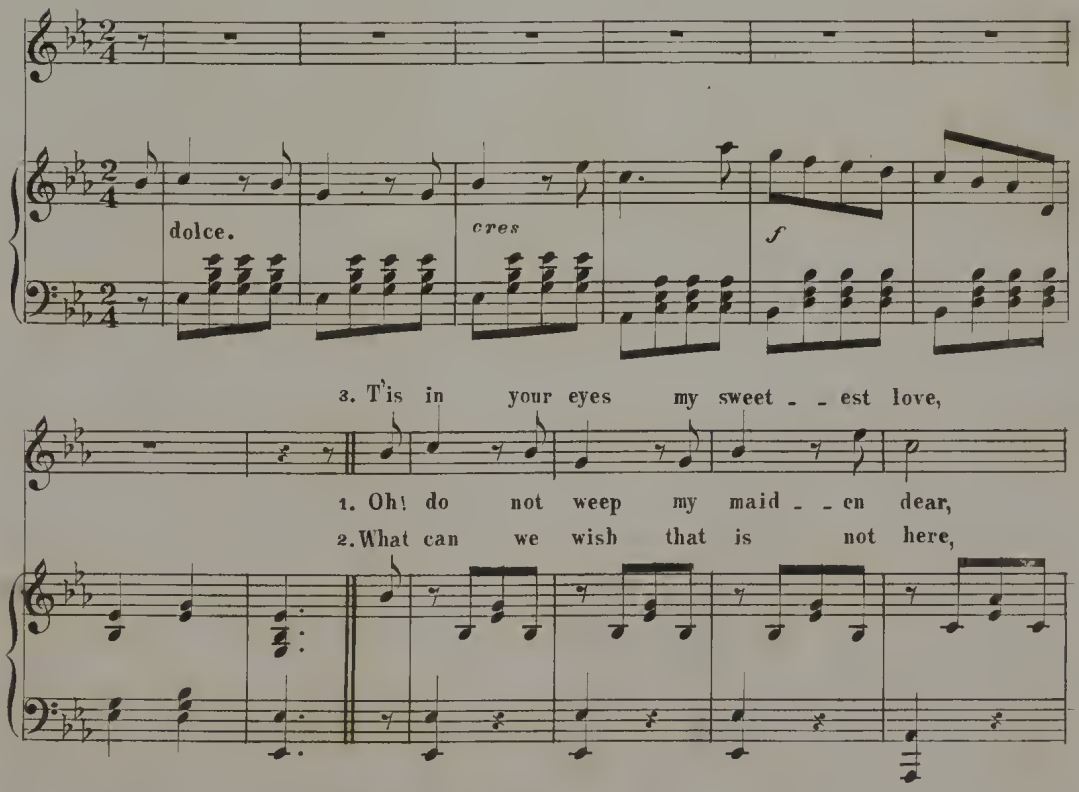

PUBLISHED BY THE

ST LOUIS MUSIC PUB CO.

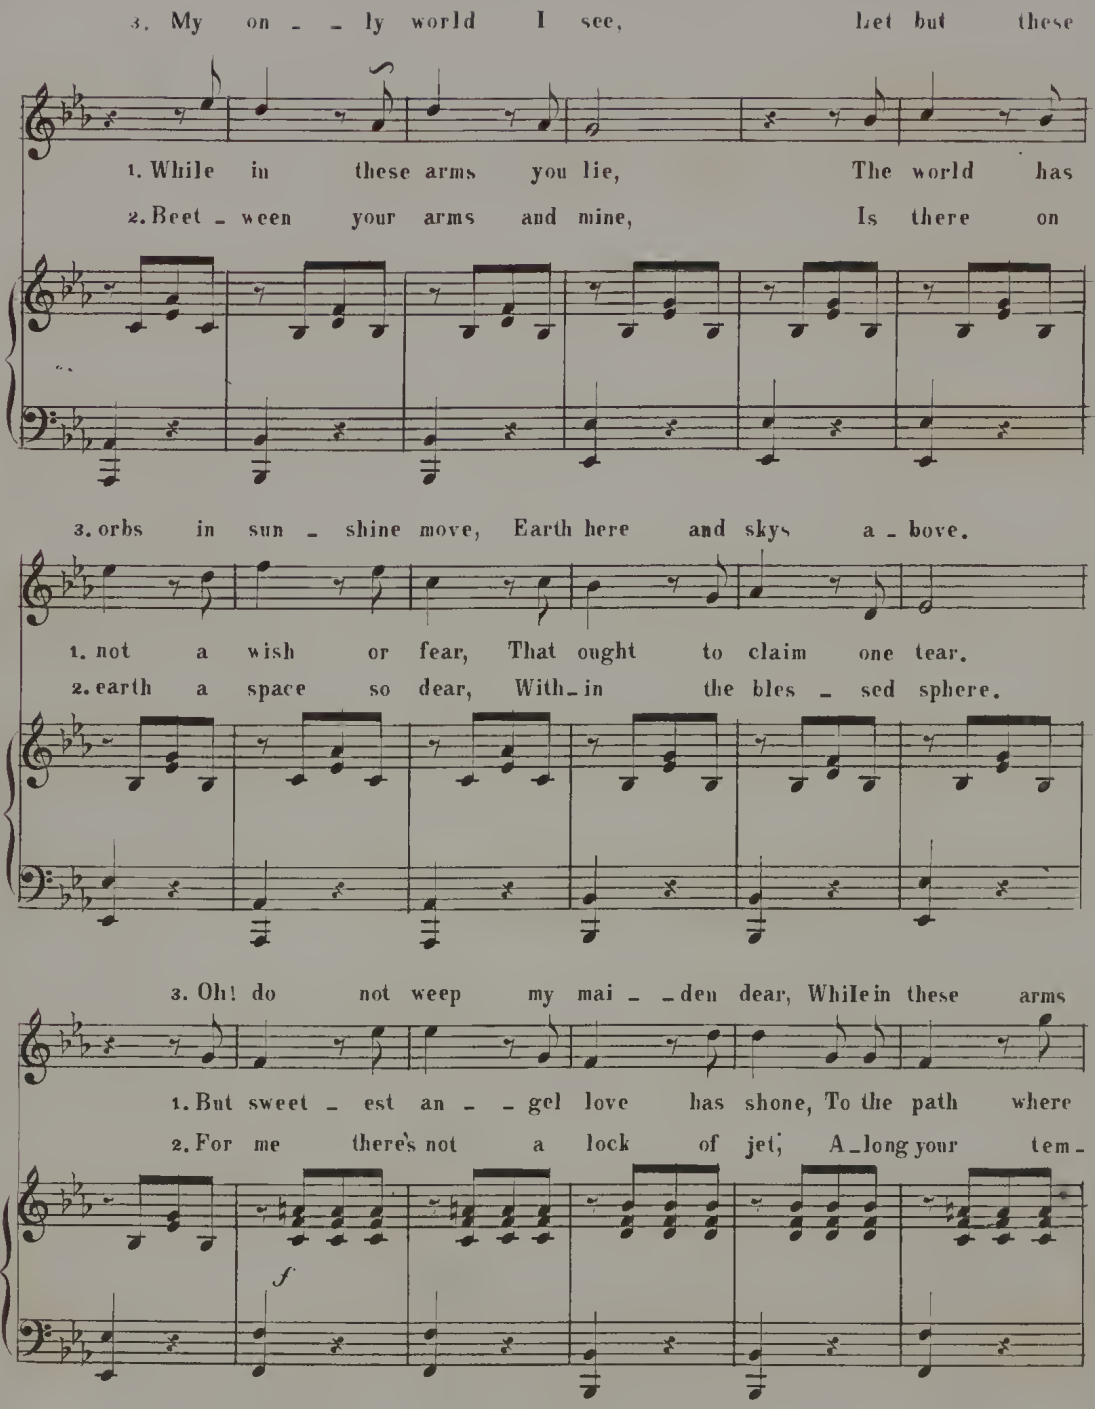

DO NOT WEEP

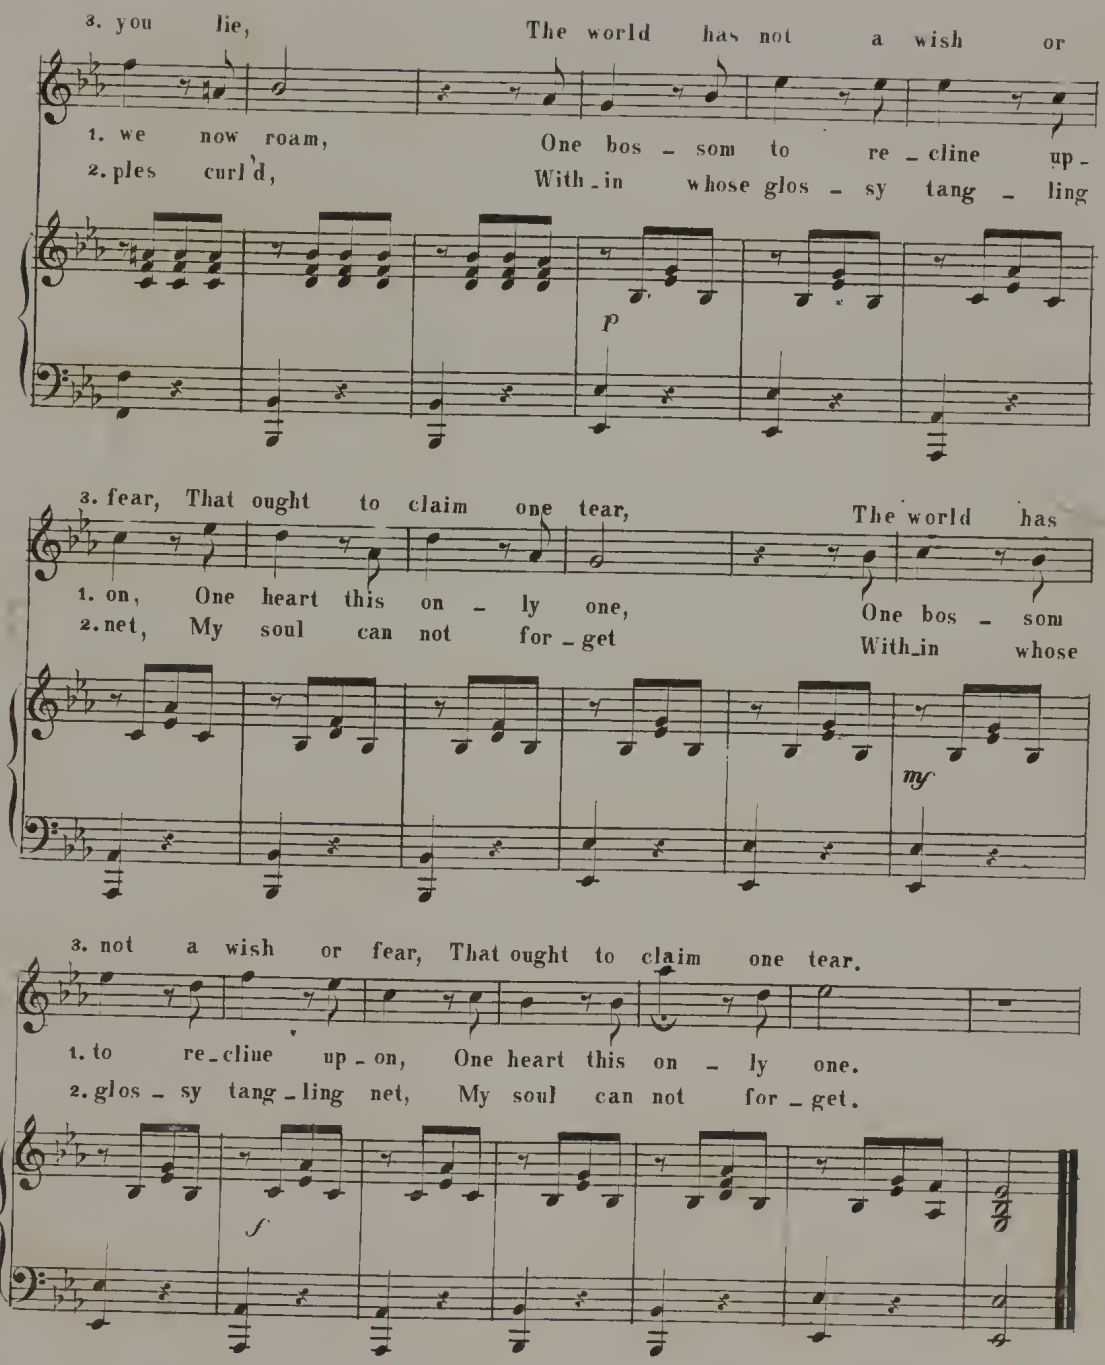

Composed by Eugene De Beust.

Andande.

Ent'd acc:to Act of Congress in the year1876 by Eugene De Beust in the Office of the Librarian of Congress at Washington D.C.

3. My on - - ly world I see, Let but these
1. While in these arms you lie, The world has
2. Beet - ween your arms and mine, Is there on
3. orbs in sun - shine move, Earth here and skys a - bove.
1. not a wish or fear, That ought to claim one tear.
2. earth a space so dear, With - in the bles - sed sphere.
3. Oh! do not weep my mai - - den dear, While in these arms
1. But sweet - est an - - gel love has shone, To the path where
2. For me there's not a lock of jet, A - long your tem -
f

3. you lie, The world has not a wish or
1. we now roam, One bos - som to re - cline up -
2. ples curl'd, With - in whose glos - sy tang - ling
p
3. fear, That ought to claim one tear, The world has
1. on, One heart this on - ly one, One bos - som
2. net, My soul can not for - get With - in whose mf
3. not a wish or fear, That ought to claim one tear.
1. to re - cline up - on, One heart this on - ly one.
2. glos - sy tang - ling net, My soul can not for - get.
f